Dear Margaret

We would like to begin by thanking you very much for your help in organising such a fabulous day for Vhairi & Russell. People seemed to really enjoy the day and several said that it was the best wedding they had ever been to. Kings College Chapel and Norwood Hall Hotel were very attractive settings for the ceremony and reception respectively. The tables in the ballroom looked lovely and people said how much they enjoyed the music played by the band. The food was excellent and the reception was very well organised. It was great that the piper was there for the first dance as well as for piping in the top table for the meal. Whytes coaches provided an excellent service transporting our guests between the two venues and Vhairi & Russell were absolutely delighted with their Jaguar. Although not quite in the same league, the Mercedes transported bridesmaids and mother of the bride very comfortably!

Judith's floral arrangements and bouquets were very beautiful and complemented perfectly the colours of the wedding party.

Vikki did a great job with Vhairi's hair and the bridesmaids' hair was also beautifully styled. Visiting Vikki's salon before the wedding was fantastic and markedly different from going to any other hairdresser, surrounded by woods with red squirrels playing while we got our hair done!

Sarah did a good job of my make-up and it was great not having to bother about having to do it myself. The wedding day preparations were certainly more relaxed for me having Vikki and Sarah there.

Rubislaw Studio did an excellent job of the photography with nearly 500 photos to choose from. Vhairi & Russell are currently finalising their choice of photos for their album. The proofs look super.

Alastair and I really appreciated your help in organising such excellent service providers as your knowing they had a good reputation took a great weight off our minds as well as saving us an immense amount of time trying to source them. Your being there on the day was particularly appreciated, not least by Vhairi when you came to the rescue to prevent her losing her skirt!!

It was a great stress free day which we thoroughly enjoyed due to your hard work before and during the wedding day.

Thanks again

Vivian & Alistair Osborne
